1.—The Directors of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Company, Limited, invite subscriptions for an issue of £600,000 7 per Cent. Preference Capital, in 60,000 Shares of £10 each at par, payable as follows:—

£1 per Share on application.
£1 ,, ,, allotment.
£2 ,, ,, 1st July, 1884.
£2 ,, ,, 1st October, 1884.
£3 ,, ,, 1st January, 1885.

£10 per Share.

2. Instalments may be paid in advance on allotment, or when any other instalment falls due, under discount at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. Default in the due payment of any instalment will render previous payments liable to forfeiture.

3. These shares have been created to provide capital for the continuation of the Company's railway from Campana to Rosario, a distance of about 136 miles, under a concession recently granted by the Argentine Government, and will carry interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum on the amount for the time being called up, until the date of the opening for traffic of the extension to Rosario, and from that date will bear a preferential dividend of 7 per cent. per annum, payable only out of the profits of each year, in priority to the other shares of the Company.

4. The holders of the present issue of preference shares will have the option at any time within five years from the date of the opening of the Rosario Extension of converting them into ordinary stock.

5. The accompanying map of the railways in the Argentine Republic shows at a glance the importance of this line, which by uniting the Central Argentine and the Government railways branching from it, now terminating at Rosario, with Buenos Ayres, the Capital of the Republic, will, at the Central Station in that city, form a junction with the Great Southern, the Western, the Ensenada, and the Northern Railways; thus linking together the various railway systems of the country, comprising nearly 3,000 miles of line, and enabling passengers and goods to be interchanged and booked through without change of station or break of bulk.

6. This Company was established in 1873, under the name of "The Buenos Ayres and Campana Railway Company, Limited," but on the recommendation of the present Board, who were elected last November, the capital has been reconstructed and increased, for the purpose of completing the railway to Rosario, and now stands as under:—

Ordinary Stock (of which £476,660 has been issued)...	£500,000
Preference Shares (now offered for subscription)	600,000
Total Share Capital....	£1,100,000
With power to issue 5 o/o Debentures, or debenture Stock, to the extent of.....	£733,000

Of this £400,000 will be issued in exchange for a like amount of 7 o/o Debenture Stock which has been extinguished, leaving £333,000 available for the purposes of the Company.

7. The Company's existing railway from Buenos Ayres to Campana, 50 miles in length, was constructed under a concession from the Argentine Government, whereby a net revenue of £28,000 per annum was guaranteed to the Company, on the basis of the working expenses being 50 per cent. of the receipts. The line was opened for traffic in 1876, and about £70,000 is repayable to the Government, out of future profits, for amounts advanced on account of the guarantee, which will, however, be practically liquidated by a subvention from the Government payable on the completion of the extension to Rosario, of $1565.87 per kilometre, equal to nearly £70,000, the Company surrendering the guarantee, thus leaving the future net earnings free for division among the proprietors of the Company.

8. Estimates have been received showing that the extension works can be completed and equipped for a sum within the capital and borrowing powers of the Company. They will be commenced simultaneously at several points, and as the country is admirably adapted for their rapid construction it is expected that the whole will be completed and opened for traffic in the ensuing year. The construction will be carried out by the Company upon the system carried out so successfully by the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway, and arrangements have already been made for the supply of the principal materials upon favourable terms.

9. The gross receipts of the line from Buenos Ayres to Campana have amounted for the past two years to £1,275 per mile per annum. The General Manager is of opinion that this rate will increase considerably on the opening of the line to Rosario, as the new line will traverse a productive, important, and well-populated district, and besides the through traffic from the Interior, the local goods and passenger traffic will be very great. Mr. J. Coghlan, the Company's representative in Buenos Ayres, confirms this opinion, and estimates that a gross return of upwards of £1,500 per mile per annum may expected on the completion of the extension.

10. Assuming, however, that the receipts on the completed railways are only at the same rate as on the existing line, viz., £1,275 per mile per annum, and that the working expenses are taken at 50 o/o (a high ratio for such a line) the result would be as follows:—

Gross receipts, 186 miles x £1,275 =	£237,150
Working expenses, say 50 o/o.....	118,575
Leaving a net revenue of	£118,575
Deduct Debenture Interest, 5 o/o on £733,000 = ...	36,650
Balance available for dividend..	81,925

upon which the dividend of 7 o/o on the shares now offered for subscription, amounting to £42,000 per annum, would be the first charge.

11. The gross earnings per mile and the present value in this market, of the following Argentine railways which the completion of this Company's line to Rosario will bring into direct communication are:—

	Gross Earnings per Mile for 1883.	Miles Working.		Amount Paid up.	Dividend 1883.	Latest Stock Exchange Quotation.
	£		RAILWAY.	£
1	1804	350	Buenos Ayres Great Southern— Ordinary Stock ...	—	—	—
2	2475	35	Buenos Ayres & Rosario Ordinary Shares	100	11 o/o	175
3	1703	247	Central Argentine Ordinary Stock ...	100	7 o/o	133
4	3183	19	Northern of Buenos Ayres— Preference Shares	10	6 o/o	11
				10	7 o/o	8

12. The Company having been carrying on business for more than ten years, has, in connection with its formation and the construction and supply of materials for the railway and its business generally, entered into contracts too numerous to be set forth here; the Company has also entered into contracts with the holders of old 7 o/o debenture stock, arranging for an issue of the new 5 o/o debenture stock and an allotment of ordinary shares in satisfaction of the principal and all arrears of interest upon such debenture stock up to 31st December, 1883; and with the holders of an old issue of preference shares for the surrender of their preferential rights, so that the old preference shares have become ordinary shares.

All persons subscribing for shares on the faith of this prospectus, must, therefore, as a condition of their subscription, waive all claim to have the dates and names of the parties of and to contracts entered into set forth.

13. The concessions from the Argentine Government for the original line, and the extension to Rosario; the Memorandum and Articles of Association, including the special resolutions passed in connection with the re-arrangement of the capital; and the contracts entered into by the Company for the surrender of the old debenture stock and preferential rights, can be seen at the offices of the solicitors of the Company, 24 Coleman Street, E.C.

By Order of the Board.

J. B. Davison,
Secretary.

LONDON LETTER.

(Our own Correspondent.)

GENERAL TOPICS.

Feb. 22nd, 1884.

It seems we have been all wrongly informed as to the editorship of the Times. Mr. Chenery's assistant editor, Mr. George Earle Buckle, eldest son of the Rev. P. Buckle of Weston-Super-Mare, has received the appointment. The Pall Mall Gazette says:—

"The editor of the Times, people used to say, was as good as a Cabinet Minister, and on that showing one must almost go back to the times of Pitt for a parallel to the new appointment, for Mr. Buckle is only just over thirty. He went up to New College with a Winchester scholarship twelve years ago, and his Oxford record is evidence alike of industry and of varied attainments. He went in, we believe, for two schools in "Moderations," and subsequently obtained two first classes in "greats" (Classics and History), as well as the Newdigate Prize Poem (on Living stone), and a fellowship at All Souls'. Mr. Buckle had not long taken his degree when he was offered an important post on the Manchester Guardian, and the confidence in his future which he showed by refusing this offer was soon justified by his appointment as assistant editor under Mr. Chenery. Mr. Buckle has now the chance of a great career before him, and every one will hope, in the interests of English journalism, that he will make the most of it."

In regard to Mr. Buckle's comparative youthfulness, there is an admirable precedent. Mr. Delane on succeeding to the post had not reached his twenty-fifth year. A return of the age of editors would be extremely interesting reading. Take the great dailies, Mr. Mudford, of the Standard; Mr. Hill, of the Daily News; Mr. Edwin Arnold, of the Telegraph, are we believe in the "fifties," as are Mr. Hutton, of the Spectator, and Mr. Frederick Greenwood, of the St. James's Gazette, and Mr. Burnand, of Punch. On the other hand, Mr. Pollock of the Saturday Review is on the right side of thirty-five.

The defence has not yet been delivered in the breach of promise case brought up by Miss Fortescue against Lord Garmoyle. The action, if continued, will, in the ordinary course of proceedings, be tried about June or July next. Mr. Charles Russell, Q.C., M.P., and Mr. Winch will appear for the plaintiff; and the Attorney-General (Sir Henry James, Q.C., M.P.) has been retained on behalf of the defendant.

Amongst curiosities of the law courts there is one attracting attention in today's papers. It is an action brought by a governess, a Miss Smith, against her employer a Mrs. Murphy, for compensation for unjust dismissal. The two ladies seem to have led a cat and dog life, and indulged in feminine expressions of hatred and contempt at each other's expense. As a rule, juries have decidedly a prejudice in favour of governesses, but in this instance Miss Smith was most unfortunate, and Mrs. Murphy the defendant, triumphant. This was partly owing to the clear and fascinating way in which her daughter a young girl of thirteen, Miss Ethel Murphy, gave her evidence to show that Miss Smith was really a very ill-behaved person, and made herself intolerable in the family. Mrs. Murphy herself was plainly not a pattern of amiability, and the whole inner working of the household was such a true and sad specimen of middle-class life in England, that the social leader-writer of the Daily News, probably the literary exquisite Mr. Lang, breaks forth into a Matthew Arnoldish bemoaning of the unintellectual condition of such people, as if he were seized with a sudden sympathy for the lower animals. Mr. Lang himself may, when occasionally suffering from cerebral and nervous excitement, envy organisms that consist mainly of stomach, mouth and tentacular; but his experiences, I dare say, of many well-fed and comfortably kennelled English families, leads him to the conclusion that with all their comfort, money, and daily work some of them lead the unlit life of a polypus.

We are in hopes of being relieved for some time to come of the everlasting Bradlaugh incident. Mr. B., on accepting the Chiltern Hundreds, immediately offered himself for re-election and was returned by a greater majority than ever over his Conservative opponent. As the Government intend to try the question of the legality of his recent votes in the House of Commons by instituting a Crown prosecution, Mr. Bradlaugh has written since his re-election to the Speaker of the House, advising him that until that action at law is decided, he will give no further trouble. Sir Stafford Northcote and his following have, however, brought forward the usual resolutions forbidding him access to the House, which was passed by a majority of 50. Mr. Gladstone observed that in similar cases the House of Commons had been defeated by the offended constituencies, and he thought that in this instance the House would ultimately be again defeated. But the Tories and tag-rag of the Liberals proceed in their persecution, and the end will be that instead of retaining at least a deistical sanction to the acts of our legislature, every vestige of religious formula, and above all the daily mockery of "prayers" will be abolished. The persecution is not confined to Parliament. Mr. Bradlaugh is, as he says, preached against in the pulpits on Sunday, and Mr. Varley had printed some 10,000 circulars of a scandalous character, forgetful, Mr. Bradlaugh says, of the fact that under the Corrupt Practices Act he has rendered himself liable to a penalty of £100, because the circular bore no printer's name and address, and under the Printer's Act to a penalty of £5 for each copy distributed, and Mr Bradlaugh who is an awful man for "Acts," intends to prosecute the unhappy Mr. Varley who is probably deep in the calculations 10,000 x 5, x 100 and costs. Lord Randolph Churchill in his silly speech on the Bradlaugh resolution referred to Mr. Bradlaugh's constituents and supporters as "a mob." Some one in the House reminded him there was another "mob" at Birmingham, which rather disconcerted the little lord, and made him think of his late lamented parent, and his own altered relations to Woodstock.

Many of your readers are personally acquainted with the great African traveller, Captain Burton. If a copy of his new work "The Book of the Sword" has not reached Buenos Aires, they will find an appreciative review of the work in the Daily Telegraph of yesterday. Captain Burton, with the energy of his nature, not only worships the sword as a bright and lovely "Queen of Weapons"—its very name coming from the sanscrit verb "svar," "to shine"—but he looks upon it as the great moraliser of the world, as a creator as well as a destroyer, the emblem of war, and all its bright lights and splendid benefits to mankind, raising the tone of society above the ineffable littleness and meanness which characterise the every-day life of the many—the destroyer of petty feuds and miserable envy and hatred. Captain Burton should go to Peru. There has been a lot of envies and hatreds besides other things destroyed there by the sword—the word including shot and shell, dynamite and breach-loaders, not all derived from "svar." The organisers with stomachs and mouths only can in their turn laugh in their way after all, at these very clever people when they become demented by gloating over one subject.

The great topic of the day is still Gordon and Egypt. As this is a short mail night and as I see the news of the surrender of Tokar just following the receipt of the text of Gordon's proslavery proclamation—albeit it refers to domestic slavery as distinguished from the trade in slaves—and as I completely fail to realise the situation I shall not attempt a letter on events in Egypt but simply send you the facts. As for Gordon I think he is one of those men of genius who are slightly cracked, and the absurd fuss made about him by the common-place Englishmen who in the presence of a little bit of genius first stare at it then hate, and finally worship it, it is simply degrading. The Suakim expedition seems to be managed from London and by another genius Wolseley. If Tokar has surrendered, what will our men find to do except come back again? Possibly they are spared some disaster for the hurried expedition in face of a fanatical and by no means despicable enemy is not without its anxieties. General Stone in regard to a Khartoum expedition has said it would require 50,000 British troops backed by 50,000 Blacks. He strongly condemns the English Government for sending Gordon unsupported to the Soudan. The suspicions I mentioned in my last that Gordon is under pressure at Khartoum are again reasured to-day. However, you will see for yourselves, I refuse to comment on the situation.

LATEST FROM TEXAS.

Through the kindness of a River Plate man in Texas we now get exchanges fromt here s it is. As great cattle country, with open camps, &c., the news may interest people here:—

Major Alex. Moore of the Cepote farm has stalled a lot of fine Texas-raised stallions and brood mares in this city to sell. They are perfect beauties, and should be seen by all who admire fine stock.

The only sale of cattle of any importance that we have heard of was made by John Welder to northern parties, being 6000 yearlings at $12 25, delivered on the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railway.

A report gained circulation a few days ago that several young stockmen on a spree at Gonzales attacked and disarmed a couple of rangers. On investigation we find that the report was wrong, and what was done was for fun.

Phil. Clark, son of that most genial gentleman, Hines T. Clark, has returned from seeing four feet of snow, and losing some horses. But Phil. managed well, and came home to receive a shower of blessings, as our friend Hines says he always—.

C. T. Cannon of Frio county, accompanied by his two brothers, was in the city last week. Mr. Cannon is making arrangements to enlarge his ranch in Frio, and place more stock on it. His brothers have returned to their homes, one in California and the other in Illinois.

J. B. McAllen of Hidalgo county is in the city again. He reports the loss of a hundred or more cattle, recently, from some unknown cause. The stock were brought from the lower Rio Grande country and put in a 90,000-acre pasture. They did not die from want of food or water.

John Wilson was up from Live Oak county last Sunday, and had the temerity to say that the fence-cutters down his way had made toothpicks out of his fence. John is a noble little fellow, and we know that it was no publication on our account that so turned the fence-cutters against him.

Cow ponies are worth from $25 to $40 on this market, wild mules from $45 to $55, broken mules from $125 to $160 by the pair, and these are Spanish mules. Driving horses are worth, say animals fifteen hands high, from 60 dollars to 100 dollars. Wild mares sell at from 14 dollars to 25 dollars according to size and grade, and one year old colts are worth from 6 dollars to 12 dollars, and twos at about 2 dollars advance. The demand for stock horses is good, but the demand for cow ponies is better and is improving.

The following is the rate furnished on stock cattle, horses and ponies in lots of ten car-loads or more: From San Antonio to Wichita Falls, 45 dollars per car; from Cotulla, 50 per car; from Laredo, 55 dollars per car. These rates are only on lots of ten cars or more. Lots of five to nine cars will be taken at 5 dollars per car extra, and less than five cars, at $7.50 higher than the first rates quoted, or under ten and under five cars. To Ogallalla, the rates are 110 dollars which is considered an advance on last year, and to our regret, will not encourage shipments.

There have been few cattle contracts and the same may be said of horses, whence the absence, in our columns, of any standard or reliable report, on such basis. We believe that, within the next two or three weeks, sales must be made in accordance with present prices, or that the market must go down. It is settled that little is to be hoped for from the railroads, which forces stockmen, for this reason again, back to their old basis of doing business. And upon this point, we seek controversion and response from the railroads or their agents themselves.

The well known Shanghai Peirce is reported to have sold his ones for $16 and his twos for $20. We do not suppose that the stockmen of Texas do not know our friend "Shanghai," nor do they, as we know is the case, know where his ranch is, and where these cattle are to be delivered, which belong to our elongated, yet respected friend, from China; but these inadvertent remarks have nothing either to do with Mr. Pierce, nor any other man, unless he belongs to a railroad which is, and has been doing, too much in the charging line, if it proposes to occupy its vacant cars and do business with the people living in what is known as Western and South-western Texas.

One of the finest cattle ranches in the state is located in what is called the big bend of the Rio Grande, near Haymond station, Presidio county, and on the line of the Southern Pacific railway. The owners of this ranch are John Kinkaid and Ed. Davenport, two young men who were born and raised on the Cibolo, just north of San Antonio. The ranch embraces fifty sections of the very finest grazing, land through which two streams of beautiful, clear water run. The banks of the Rio Grande are so steep that the water in that stream can not be reached. On the range are 800 head of cattle. The bulls are 200 in number and are half breed Shorthorns, and all the cattle on the ranch are fat.

NOTES FROM CHASCOMUS.

Most of the leading men here are all energetically working to make the Exhibition and Fair, which will be held on the 31st, and 1st, 2nd, 3rd inst., a great succets.

Judging from what is going on in the way of sheds, corrales, &c., and from the splendid list of animals to be sent from the neighbouring and other estancias, there is every reason to believe their efforts will be fully rewarded.

There will, no doubt, be great competition among the exhibitors, such names as the Manantiales, Espartillar, Blandengues, Barrancas, also of Messrs Senillosa Hermanos, Mr. A. Jones, Meyer, Campbell, Reid, Dodds, Zimmerman, are a sufficient guarantee as to the class and quality of stock to be exhibited.

Prizes are to be awarded, consisting of agricultural implements, gold, silver and bronze medals, by the Rural Societies of Buenos Aires and Chascomus, the Municipality, and from other sources.

Many thanks are due to Mr. Cooper for the courteous and kindly manner in which he has responded to the request of the Committee, granting them a great reduction for all animals sent by the great Southern Railway. Several influential gentlemen are expected from Buenos Atres and other parts of the country, including the Governor elect, Dr. D'Amico, to countenance and aid, by their presence in giving to the Exhibition a permanent and beneficial standing.

Arrangements have been made for bringing a first-class band of music from Buenos Aires. A banquet at the Club-room, ball at the Municipal Hall, Conversazione at the English School-room, and "quien sabe" what else will be given, to entertain the visitors after the close of each day.

The rain during the past week has put everyone in good spirits, for really things were beginning to look rather discouraging.

We have to thank our new Municipality, under the Presidency of Sr. Ramon Milani, for repairing the roads that lead out to the camp from the town, and for many other improvements of a similar nature.

The town is looking much neater and cleaner than before. The streets are in very good order for traffic, but the same cannot be said of the "veredas," as in some parts, especially at night, they are not at all pleasant for pedestrians.

The new Public Schools, which have cost over $800,000 m|c. are to be opened on the 31st inst. The Hospital has been enlarged, and now presents a very creditable appearance. The town can now boast of some very handsome edifices.

The annual general meeting of the members of the Scotch Church was held last week, under the presidency of Mr. J. S. Ritchie. Amongst those present were Messrs, J. Dodds, Cameron, Buchanan, E. Johnson, Orphant, N. M. Auld. A slight alteration was made in the price of the sittings at the church, in converting the old prices into "Moneda Nacional," also a fixed charge was agreed upon for registry of baptisms and marriages, the same collectors were re-elected, and other matters of more importance were discussed.

and willingly given his services for the

Mr. N. M. Auld, who has so ably past five years as Treasurer and Secretary, intimated his retirement, as he intended making a journey to Europe.

After a hearty vote of thanks was proposed and carried, the following gentlemen were elected as office-bearers for the present year:—Chairman, Mr. L. S. Ritchie. Treasurer—Mr. Jas. Buchanan. Secretary—Mr. Samuel Jones.

So far, the circulation of the National dollars is not very great, as all the business men still carry on with the old paper dollar, and in purchasing anything you rarely receive any National money in change.

ENGLAND AND EUROPE.

Considerable sensation was caused in Paris yesterday by an article in the Republique Francaise on the result of the vote of censure debate. After giving the particulars of the division, the Republique says that no one will be surprised at the result. It will not distress the Tories, who were not anxious to take office.

There is a consideration, however, of which no mention has been made, and which must have influenced not a few members. Democracy is there knocking at the door, respectfully, but in a most determined tone, demanding admittance. It requires an electoral reform, thorough and complete, which shall sweep away the last vestiges of the feudal origins of parliamentary government, and definitively establish the reign of numbers. Mr. Gladstone has not only promised that reform, but he regards it as the crowning achievement of his life; and it is universally acknowledged that he is the only man capable of effecting it without a convulsion. To sacrifice Mr. Gladstone to the Egyptian question would be sacrificing the democratic evolution to preoccupations of foreign policy. Unfortunately, foreign questions are awkward facts, which may sometimes be put off, but will not allow themselves to be elbowed out of existence; and England has now to confront those questions in their most menacing aspect. . . . England, having allowed herself to be quietly pushed out of European politics, those politics have within the last few years been shaping themselves without and quite apart from her. Indeed, we are not sure that it would not be more correct to say against her. . . . What is the Austro-German Alliance but the ultimate access of Austria to Salonica, the great European port in closest proximity to the Suez Canal? What is the meaning of the alliance of the three Emperors? It means Russia giving up, whether she likes or not, the Balkan Peninsula, and expanding over Central Asia, with the support of Germany. Hence a curious fact, which the London press seems not to have noticed. Whenever the Russians make a further advance in Turkestan, no one expects war in Europe. As soon as they stop their advance a conflagration in Europe is looked for in the spring, as it indicates that the Russians are once more thinking of the Bosphorus. They are now at Merv, so Europe is tranquil. European politics, in which it is known France has no concern, have the following objective:—Austria, to command the Eastern Mediterranean by the possession of Salonica; Russia to subject Cabul to her influence, if not to her absolute dominion. What will England do to escape the clutch of the two monstrous claws stretching towards India and the Isthmus? What has she done up to this time? It would strike us that she might find it useful to have allies in the Mediterranean, and what does she do? She drives Italy into the arms of Germany, and she drives Faance out of Egypt. If English Democrats were to ask our advice, we might, perhaps, suggest that it would be well to entrust the destinies of their country to a pilot less short-sighted than Lord Granville.

In diplomatic circles the Paris correspondent of the Standard says, this palpable overture for a rapprochement with England is considered important, because the paper is inspired. It is reported that it has been made the subject of official telegrams to London and Berlin.

GORDON IN KHARTOUM.

Khartoum, Feb. 19th

Yesterday was one series of acceptable surprises for the people of Khartoum.

General Gordon's proclamation preceded him, and immediately on his arrival he summoned the officials, thus preparing the people for some salutary changes. He next held a levée at the Mudirieh, the entire population, even the poorest Arab, being admitted. On his way between the Mudirieh and the Palace about 1,000 persons pressed forward kissing his hands and feet, and calling him "Sultan," "Father," and "Saviour of Kordofan."

Gen. Gordon and Col. Stewart at once opened offices in the Palace, giving to everyone with a grievance admittance and a careful hearing. The Government books, recording from time immemorial the outstanding debts of the overtaxed people, were publicly burnt in front of the Palace. The kourbashes, whips, and implements for administering the bastinado from Government-house were all placed on the blazing pile. The evidence of debts and the emblems of oppression perished together.

In the afternoon General Gordon created a Council of the local notables, all Arabs. Then he visited the hospital and arsenal. With Colonel Stewart, Coetlogon Pasha, and the English Consul he visited the prison, and found it to be a dreadful den of misery. Two hundred wretches loaded with chains lay there. They were of all ages, boys and old men, some having never been tried, some having been proved innocent, but forgotten for over six months, some arrested on suspicion and detained there more than three years, many merely prisoners of war, and one a woman, who had spent 15 years in the prison for a crime committed when she was a girl.

General Gordon at once commenced to demolish this bastille. All the prisoners will be briefly examined, and if it be advisable set at liberty. Before it was dark scores of wretches had had their chains struck off, and to-day Colonel Stewart is continuing this work.

Last night the town was in a blaze of illumination, the bazaar being hung with cloth and coloured lamps and the private houses beautifully decorated. There was even a fine display of fireworks by the negro population, who indulged in great rejoicings till midnight.

The people are devoted to General Gordon, whose design is to save the garrison and for ever leave the Soudan—as perforce it must be left—to the Soudanese.

By private advices from Cairo we learn that surprise is expressed at General Gordon's proclamation. Here the Europeans hail it with delight, and agree that it is the only means of saving the lives of themselves and the garrison.

The Mahdi is proclaimed ruler of Kordofan, it is true; but he is already its virtual ruler, and the official recognition of the fact will prevent his advance upon Khartoum. The slave trade is not to be interfered with; but the Government is already powerless to interfere with it, and the General is, therefore, only making a virtue of necessity. Half of the taxes are remitted, because the people are totally unable to pay.

General Gordon is evidently determined to carry out his orders to effect the evacuation of the Soudan, without risking the lives of another ten thousand men. The Egyptians and Europeans have the utmost confidence in him and his measures, and foresee that he will spare the useless effusion of blood.

6.30 p.m.

General Gordon has appointed Afresh Bey Shilook, a negro, who won the Legion of Honour, under Bazaine, in Mexico, commandant of the troops remaining in Khartoum.

All the Soudanese are to stay, all the white troops are to go to Omdurman, on the other side of the White Nile, and to be sent down the river in detachments, with their families, and the Europeans who wish to go. The General's conciliatory measures will keep the road perfectly open, and also keep Khartoum quiet till it has been entirely given up.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The heat was so overpowering yesterday that people prayed for frost and snow instead of rain, which is now admitted to be of no use whatever as a cooling medium for the atmosphere. Lieutenant Bove, who is now enjoying himself near the South Pole, is the man most to be envied in this hemisphere. He can live without putting on four clean shirts per day.

The Nord America (Sterling Castle) with the poet D'Amicis on board, is due to-day at Montevideo, and the literary world, here and there, is in a ferment. The delegates from the B. Aires Committee are there waiting for him. While Homer and Shakespeare lived they were never banqueted, or gold-medalled, or petted in any way; but a little poetry goes a long way in this money-grubbing age.

Her Majesty's new Plenipo. here, the Hon. H. Monson, arrived here yesterday from Montevideo, and came ashore in the Port Captain's "falua de gala." He will present his credentials next week. We feel great pleasure in welcoming him to Buenos Aires.

The Provincial Government House in Calle Moreno is fast assuming the appearance of "a banquet hall deserted." Yesterday the Archivero and his musty archives bade farewell, a long farewell, to the place, and to-day another department starts for the City of Frogs. "Bon voyage."

The Bahia-Blancians complain bitterly that the telegraph is eternally out of order, that postage stamps are unpleasantly scarce, and dust outrageously plenty. News is not plenty, and the papers have to go in for rambows, red sunsets and other exciting filling stuff.

Two very stiff shocks of earthquake were felt in Mendoza the other night. The people were greatly alarmed and rushed into the street in their night clothes, yelling with terror.

Our enterprising colleague El Dia, of La Plata, has adopted a plan which the Standard tried in its infancy: It gives all the news from France in French, and from Italy in Italian.

The Libertad agrees with us that there is too much fun, feasting, flirting and folly going on on board the Admiral Brown; adding, that our remarks were far too mild for the occasion. Perhaps they were.

Number 5513 won the big prize in yesterday's Lottery. We suppose Mr Marenco has it.

A German living in a conventillo in Calle Victoria half murdered a woman living in the same house on Wednesday. He shot the woman in the left side, and then put a bullet through his own heart, falling dead instantly. He was a lithographer, and she promised to marry him when he had sufficient means for their maintenance. A rich suitor, however, of advanced years solicited her hand and heart, and was accepted. The happy couple left for Rio Janeiro, so did the unhappy lithographer, now fallen on evil courses. He was never sober by day, and always drunk at night. The old fellow disappeared from the scene, and the pair returned to this city. The money was soon spent and squandered by the unreformed rascal, and as she, in consequence, refused to have anything more to do with him, he finished up by treating her to a lively chance of four revolver bullets and himself to the remaining two. He is dead, and she is gone to Porto Alegre on a visit to her sister.

The Nat. Bank Clerks' Banquet on Wednesday night, at the Cafe de Paris, was a splendid affair; A new "moda" was introduced—"abrazos" between the toasts. We endorse this striking innovation for all banquets graced with the presence of ladies, but not otherwise.

Our colleague, El Plata, was shut up through a mistake, and will appear again to-day or to-morrow.

The apothecaries of the city—barring the English ones, who are all like Cæsar's wife—are trembling in their old boots (Apothecaries always wear wretchedly made boots) owing to the City Analysts having looked some of them up. It appears qroved beyond a doubt that the drugs sold in many "boticas" are more dangerous and adulterated than even the wines, and that many of them are not only useless as medicine but poisonous compounds of the worst kind. What next?

Mr Gruget, of the Frascati Hotel, has offered to give the poet Amicis his lodging free while he remains here; he says nothing about board. Mr. Gruget is generous, but his business principles are not sound. If we had the good luck to own a first-class hotel, we would not give even the author of Paradise Lost a shake-down on a "catre" unless he paid for it. This poet-worship will have bad results, as poets from all quarfers will soon flock here, thinking that they can live on the fat of the land for nothing.

March 27th, 1884

Cedulas A	100
Cedulas E	88
Cedulas F	83
National Bank Shares....	127⅞
Nat. Bank Certificados..	140

There is nothing special to report about stocks, Cedulas or shares; the heat is so tremendous that it puts one into increased perspiration to look up at the old dull black board, Cedulas 88, or 88, or 88 amounts to about the same for half the folks on the Bolsa to-day who found the coolest spot on 'Change the marble door step on the street. In such perspiring weather the ring is an error and speculation a mistake. The whole Bolsa was astonished at the spurt in National Bank Certificados, a stock which we have been recommending our readers to buy for the last 12 months. The sales to-day were made at 40 o/o premium, deliverable to the end of the year, which means a very great advance on last week's prices. Thus 1,000 Certificados at 30 premium last week on 30 o/o paid was 9,000 patacons profit over the par value, whilst the price now paid 40 o/o on the amount paid up at the end of the year 60 o/o gives 24,000 pats profit, which shows the great advantage to the seller in selling for the end of the year. As it is probable that the Bank will this year pay large dividends, the purchaser of the stock does also a very good business, as the Bank is earning at the rate of 4 millions pats per annum.
The sale of four leagues of land between Bahia Blanca and Patagones for 10,000 m/n per league is a sale of very great import; the land is on the line, or route, of the proposed railway from Bahia Blanca to Patagones, and the purchaser is a Bank Director and one of the most influential Provincial Government men in town. We hear of another lot of land between the Colorado and Rio Negro at a place called the Segundos Pozos at 6,000 pats per league, whilst buyers of land along the Coast and facing the Bahia Union are now offering. Upon the whole we note a stir in property down there, which we attribute to the proposed extension of the Bahia Blanca Railway to Patagones.
The sale of land by Messrs. Bullrich & Co. yesterday is of much import; the land is within two leagues of the town of Salto in the North of this Province and was purchased in two lots by an Italian and an Irishman, both sheepfarmers, which is also significant; the auction was a judicial sale to wind up a testamentaria, and the land was sold at the rate of 3,200,000 $/ per square league. A few leagues further out the buyers might have bought 3 square leagues each for the 3 league they bought at auction, and better land for alfalfa, maize and other crops than the Salto land. But a very few years will pass over our head before this monstrous difference in the price of lands will be swept away. To-day the owner of three leagues of prime land in the Venado Tuerto refused an offer of 300,000 $/ cash per league, which shows how rapidly those lands are coming into favor.

The splendid Lumb corralon near the Plaza Once was sold to-day for $400,000 m/c 15 yards front on Rivadavia and Piedad by 138 varas deep; Don Luis Irigoyen buyer, a really splendid purchase.
Also a property in Calle Callao between Corrientes and General Lavalle 20x54 for 23,600 m/c per vara front. This is one of the finest streets in town and but a few years ago property there could barely fetch 10,000 m/c per vara front.
Mr Sanchez, the new manager of the Provincial Bank branch in Patagones, arrived in town to-day he leaves in the Pomona on 1st wish for Patagones and takes down everything with him to establish his bank.
Many parties hope that Mr Bulrich will postpone his Santa Rita prize stock auction as the races are fixed for Sunday and people cannot well attend both places at the same time in this very hot weather.
The following were the sales at the ring during official hours:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 9,000 at 100
For March 28th A 3,000 at 100
For March 29th A 5,000 at 100
For cash E 14,500 at 88½-88
For March 28th E 11,000 at 88
For March. 31st E 30,000 at 88½
Sales, 72,000
National Bank Shares—
For March 31st 1,300 at 127⅞-⅝-½-⅜
For April 30th 400 at 129½-129-⅜-129
Sales, 1,700
National Bank Certificates, 30 o/o paid—
200 (d) at 140
Treasury Bills—
For cash 3,000 at 102½
Argentine Gas Shares—
For cash 25 at $1,150%
The failure of Mr. George Prins is announced, having been declared officially by the Court. This failure causes a question between some European consignors of goods and the Custom House. It appears that certain goods were consigned to Sr Prins who being indebted to the Custom House, the goods to his consignment are seized by the Fisco, although the bill of lading and invoice of the goods are in the hands of one of our city Banks, and hence the property in the goods was never by any chance in Mr. Prins. The case is really a hard one and we notice it with a view to cautioning European firms against consigning goods to parties and sending by the same mail the invoice and bill of lading to a bank to collect the amount as according to our Custom House juris prudence the mere consignment of goods places their ownership in the consignee, although perhaps as in the present case the real ownership of the goods is in the bank who holds the bill of lading and other papers until the consignee accepts the bill drawn against them or pays up. It is well that our friends abroad should know the Custom House law existing in this country as we dont think any other Custom House in the world could claim the goods, save that of this country.
The heat to-day was worse than yesterday and each day we are ascending in the scale, until a storm comes that will bring out all our overcoats and umbrellas. The camps are splendid in all parts, and the rains have been general throughout the whole country.
The business at afterhours was somewhat brisker, 100,000 Cedulas for end of month sold at 88¼, and 50,200 for to-morrow at 88. Nat. Bank shares buyers at 127½, and 129 for April.
Discount brokers report money easy at 7%, and even 7 per cent for first class pagares.
Exchange was passed for the Pacific mail of 29th at 47½ and 9/16, a fair amount of business done. In francs we heard of nothing save, the Provincial Bank drawing.
Telegrams from Gualeguaychu give the startling news of the burning of a great flour mill, belonging to Mr Cariglia, a total loss, the place was insured in the various Companies in town for 232,000 pats. The fire took place at 1 o'clock in the morning.
The Mimho will be up in the morning, and the passengers out of quarantine.
Nothing to report about hides, very few hides in the market. Wool market dull, and small arrivals.
The English papers give the following—
"On the 7th inst. Messrs Napier, Shanks, and Bell launched from their yard at Yoker, a steel paddle-steamer designed for River navigation, and built to the order of Messrs Morton, Rose & Co., London, for the Lloyds Argentine Company,

The Pacific steamer Aconcagua anchored at Flores Island at 4½ p.m. on Wednesday. Her mails come up this morning. She brings dates from Lisbon to 5th inst.

The minuteness with which the B. Aires papers describe everything now-a-days, marriages and murders, elopements, robberies, rows, and everything they can lay hold of, is most repulsive. Yesterday they devoted columns to a double crime by a vagabond German, which we give in a few lines in another paragraph. The other day the ins and outs of a case of madness in a Cordobese family were pitilessly exposed to the public gaze. It is outrageous.

Can it be true? The Prensa says that a terrible mistake has been made in the wooden houses for La Plata. The measure sent for them was in metres, but the builders made them in feet, so there is a mess which can only be settled by ordering three times the number of houses originally intended.

Three sailors jumped off the Catalinas mole on Tuesday to save three big pipes of wine that were bobbing about in the river. One of them was near going on a visit to David Jones, as a huge wave washed one of the pipes right at his head, which had a very narrow escape of being smashed.

A curious wager is to be decided on Sunday in low life, at least we presnme the parties must be [at that end of the social scale, from the nature of the bet, which hinges on the devouring of fifteen paper dollars worth of bread and half the side of a roasted ox, by each of the combatants. Disgusting!

Many of our colleagues are getting into the bad habit of working on the most solemn holidays and appearing the next morning. No good ever comes of working on holidays; and it is specially bad for editors and their hacks, who are so overworked when they are at work.

In Rio trial has just been made of an apparatus called "Preservador Cavalcanti," which prevents fatal tram accidents. The inventor threw himself on the rails, under the wheels, and in every possible position of sudden danger, but he escaped without a scratch. This wonderful bit of machinery is very much wanted for Buenos Airean tram cars, and we advise the inventor to run down here and have a chat about it with the Rt. Honble the Lord Mayor.

Coming events! The Times says: "Lords Spiritual. The following are the terms of the motion for which Mr. Willis has secured first place on Friday, March 21:—'To move that the legislative power of Bishops in the House of Peers in Parliament is a great hindrance to the discharge of their spiritual function, prejudicial to the Common wealth, and fit to be taken away by Bill." The temporal Peers may now put their "barbas en remoja."

It's really too much! Mr Mariano Marenco, the popular Inspector of the Provincial Bank is the most outrageously lucky of all our numerous subscribers. He won 10,000 pats in a Lottery a month ago, 2,000 a week ago, and on Saturday last 10,000 m/c. We wish he would make us a present of a number, as tickets that cost the holder nothing invariably win in Lotteries.

The Model Market is now quite a rendezvous in the morning. It is crowded daily with people anxious to have a look at it; and some cooks come from the other end of town to purchase their provender in such a nice place.

Dr. Luis Dominguez, Argentine Minister in Washington, gave a grand concert at the Legation last month. It was the fete of the season, all the High Life of the capital being present.

Bueno! The new filters for the Water-works will be ready at the end of this month.

A gentleman hard pressed by his tailor was recently at Brighton, when he suddenly met his creditor escorting a lady, who evidently supposed her escort to be a person of distinction—"How are you," exclaimed the debtor, taking the tailor's hand. "Of course, I shall see you to-morrow at Lady ——?" The gentleman has not since heard from his creditor, which shows that gratitude is not utterly extinct.—Exchange.
